

Fire 'n' Motion

Fire 'n' Motion can add energy to any event by providing either short performance sets of several minutes each or hours of roving entertainment. Whatever your preference, their performances can be tailored to suit your requirements.

Fire 'n' Motion perform two different types of shows: Stage shows and 'roaming' walk-around shows.

Their stage shows run for 10-15 minutes, and include a fast-paced, visually impressive choreographed fire show to their own music. A large repertoire of dance choreographs, ranging from high-energy nightclub fire-dancing to ambience-enhancing background shows. Also utilised is a wide variety of musical styles, from earthly primal beats to classical music, and everything in between. For these performances, Fire 'n' Motion use their most dangerous and stunning equipment and pyrotechnics are also available on request.
