

Chew Eng Chye

For a long time now, Chew Eng Chye has been helping a range of corporations make their events fun, memorable and successful.

Eng Chye is a magician and psychological illusionist who specialises in corporate entertainment performing an intimate and interactive form of close-up magic or stage magic where you'll be able to hear gasps of amazement and laughter.

Clients such as Burswood Entertainment Complex regularly call on him to entertain their high rollers from around the world and he's also amazed and delighted audiences from Argyle Diamonds, Bridgestone, Coca-Cola, Konica Minolta, Malaysia Airlines, National Australia Bank, Rio Tinto, TNT Express and Toyota.

Eng Chye's magic and illusions are suitable for all occasions including award nights, cocktail parties, conferences, conventions, corporate events, exhibitions, gala dinners, private parties, product launches, sales meetings, special events and trade shows.

Close-up magic

With close-up magic, your guests or clients will be treated to their very own intimate and interactive show where they'll be able to experience the magic for themselves.

What Eng Chye accomplishes close-up is simply incredible. Imagine experiencing...

Rubber bands mysteriously melting through one another.

How card sharks and card sharps cheat at cards where someone's signed playing card appears in the most amazing places.

A demonstration of psychometry where a drawing matches a picture previously drawn and thought of by someone else.

Someone thinking of a time whilst someone else turns the hands of a face down watch. When the watch is turned over, it's seen to display the time the first person thought of.

A $10 note being transformed into a $100 note.

Close-up magic can be performed as strolling magic where Eng Chye can mix and mingle among your guests performing for individual groups or it can be performed from table to table in a seated environment.

Ideal for award nights, cocktail parties, conferences, conventions, corporate events, exhibitions, gala dinners, private parties, product launches, sales meetings, special events and trade shows.

Stage Magic

Stage magic is a unique blend of comedy, magic and audience participation and is able to be performed for a large group of people so that your guests or clients get to enjoy the magic at the same time. Imagine experiencing...

A mind blowing illusion where a 10 foot straw appears from a McDonald's paper bag.

Five people being given a chance of winning a $100 note sealed inside one of five envelopes with a surprising ending.

A funny routine with an audience member where their $100 note is magically changed into a $10 note.

A comical routine where an audience member's thoughts are revealed not once but three times.

Three people being asked to draw a picture which are then mixed up. Amazingly, Eng Chye is able to determine who two of the drawings belong to and for the finale is able to draw a picture which matches the picture drawn by the last person.

The art of magic where a bowling ball drawn on a sketch pad comes to life when it falls out of the pad and onto the ground with a loud "THUD".

A dangerous game of Russian Roulette where a beer bottle is broken with a hammer and placed on a wooden stand underneath one of four brown paper bags. The paper bags are then shuffled around so no one knows where the broken beer bottle is. Two people are then asked to assist by choosing which paper bags Eng Chye should slam his hand down on so that he doesn't get hurt. The last paper bag is then shown to contain the broken beer bottle.

A funny game show style routine filled with "Oohs" and "Aahs" where a $100 note is borrowed from an audience member who writes their name across the face of it so they'll recognise it later. The audience member is then given a chance at winning prizes worth thousands of dollars including a sports car, a diamond ring, $10,000 in cash, a computer system and a Hawaiiin vacation. However, their $100 note magically disappears and they end up winning a lemon. When the lemon is sliced open, the audience member's bill is found inside which has their signature on it.

For larger events, Eng Chye can also perform his " Snow " illusion where a magical story is told and snow flakes shoot out of his hands rising approximately 15 feet into the air.

Whether you'd like to entertain 100 or 1,000 guests, Eng Chye can work with you to customise a show to suit your event.

Ideal for award nights, conferences, conventions, corporate events, exhibitions, gala dinners and special events.
