Jean-Luc

2007 & 2008 WA's magician of the year, multi award winner and international magician, Jean-Luc perform some cutting edge magic you will keep talking about days after...either on stage or close-up Jean-Luc blends reality and imagination to create his unique and mind boggling magic with cards, ropes, coins, every days object or even your mind....Or just be amazed by his fantastic illusions or dangerous escapes "houdini style"

Jean-Luc grew up in France, and start his career as an actor in theatre and movies, then wrote and directed his own movie who got a prize in a movie festival...He then get in professional water skiing and after being French champion, came third in world championship and won the Australian championship in 2008.

In the mean time he became a full time professional magician in 2007, after performing all around the world in places like Tahiti, New Caledonia, Dominican Republic, Ivory coast, Greece, Italy, England, Thailand, Las-Vegas and of course in France(for the Film Festival in Cannes) and in Australia.

His stage shows are very original and based on movies, so he get you into a story bringing some fantastic illusions or sleight of hands or mentalism on the way.

Jean-Luc bring his French class and elegance in his close-up magic or walk around to entertain his audience and keep them wondering what happened...

Or if you are looking for some stunt to attract more people for an event, Jean-Luc is also an escape artist and like Houdini can escape from a straitjacket hang by the feet 20 meters or more above the ground, or after displaying a regular wine barrel who can be inspected, get lock and handcuff inside, and still be able to escape in less than 5mn.

So, whatever the occasion is for Jean-Luc will be the highlight of your function, event or party.
