

Deb Macintyre Duo

" Deb Macintyre - she sings with a humble and earthy joyous outpouring rarely seen in today's young divas. Non-pretentious, intelligent and fun, Deb Macintyre is plainly gifted with a clear voice that can equally soar and dig in. " Libby Hammer, Jazz Singer Perth

Deb Macintyre has been performing in the Perth jazz scene for a number of years with a repertoire that ranges from earthy blues ballads, upbeat cosmopolitan swing, funky jazz melodies and features compositions from the Tin Pan Alley greats such as Cole Porter and the Gershwins. Deb's beautiful divine and silky voice also betray her influences from greats such as Ella Fitzgerald, Anita O'Day, Billie Holiday, Etta James, Carmen McRae, Sarah Vaughan, Betty Carter and Dinah Washington to name but only a few.

Deb also has a strong gospel background which is evident even now in her soulful approach to jazz standards.

In a typical jazz setting, Deb Macintyre can work in many different outfits but most often can be seen working with her exciting vibrant trio.

In recent performances Deb has included as part of her repertoire a number of contemporary tunes featuring such artists as Burt Bacharach, The Carpenters, James Taylor, Aretha Franklin and Stevie Wonder.

The Deb Macintyre Combo has performed at a number of private and corporate functions (eg City of Perth Food & Wine Festival and Fremantle Arts Festival) over the last few years, which have included weddings, receptions, gallery openings, Christmas Eve and corporate Christmas functions, special events, Melbourne Cup and New Year's Eve.
