

Richard Robert's

Experience coupled with an amazing voice that ranges from silky smooth Jazz thru to raunchy rock and roll to soulful ballads, Richard Robert's covers it all with his distinctive style.

Richard accompanies himself on electric and acoustic guitar plus harmonica in Lounges and restaurants, pubs and parties and is always ready to please with requests.

Richard has a pedigree of experience starting in New Zealand where he was lead singer in a great band ,The Troubled minds , playing British R&B and moving to the more soulful areas of Stax and Motown, the band became backing band for NZTV's pop show "C'mon '68" NZ wide tour.

From there he was a resident singer on the TV show "C'mon" in 1969 . Richard moved to England in early 70's and played the London pub circuit with original band 'Baxter Robert's Band' six month stint in Lausanne, Switzerland mid 70's saw Richard singing lead with swiss rock outfit Shifter playing large venues and notably a TV show recorded live at the famous Montreaux Casino (a couple of years after the infamous Frank Zappa fire and smoke on the water legend).

On returning to London, played the circuit again including The Marquee The Nashville Rooms and Upstairs at Ronnies.

In the '80's Richard moved to Perth and was the singer with The Flying Fonzarellis, recording and touring nationally and internationally to packed houses, with regular appearances on Telethon and Appealathon, performing, phone room and panel.

Richard Roberts is suitable for all functions including weddings, cocktail parties, lounge bars and corporate pre-dinner drinks.
