

Boy George Tribute

It was in the early 80's that Molly Meldrum introduced Australia to Boy George and Culture Club via the popular TV show Countdown. Boy George along with his band had amazing success with many number 1 hits which in turn made him an international superstar. With his flamboyant personality, colorful costumes and make-up Boy George and band had a huge influence on many of the 80's British bands. Indi who is playing Boy George in the Boy George Tribute projects himself into character with absolute commitment and dedication.

