

Elvis Leaves His Mark

Mark has been paying tribute to Elvis for over 11 years now and his dedication to putting on "the most amazing" and authentic show is obvious. With a dazzling wardrobe of intricate costumes, dancing show girls, a glittering stage and a rockin professional 12 piece band, the audience is taken on a journey of musical masterpieces from the 50's through to the 70's. Mark has it all, the moves, the voice, and above all an obvious respect for the man whose memory he is keeping alive right to this very day.

The last show at Parkes Elvis Revival Festival, Mark played to a crowd of over 1000 screaming fans. The shows were a complete sell out and the atmosphere was not unlike one would have imagined the Las Vegas Hilton to be back in the late 60's/early 70's. For over 2 hours, the audience was treated to a plethora of Elvis hits from all different eras along with a visually dazzling performance.

Dressed in the glittering Gold Lamé suit that Elvis made famous back in 1957, Mark belted out classics such as 'Blue Suede Shoes', 'Don't Be Cruel', 'A Fool Such As I' and 'Such A Night'. A segment of "movie hits" was a definite crowd pleaser as many rocked along to songs such as 'Little Egypt', 'Kissing Cousins' and 'Follow That Dream'. Another real treat was an "Unplugged" set where Mark emerged in a black leather suit and recreated the 1968 Comeback Special jamming with the guys on stage to 'That's Alright Mama', 'Trouble' and 'Guitar Man'. The first half of the show ended poignantly with Mark changing into the 'If I Can Dream' white suit and singing that tune with true passion and soul.

After a brief intermission, the first strings of 2001 A Space Odyssey, sent shivers through the audience who shrieked in anticipation. Dressed in an amazing replica of Elvis' Adonis Jumpsuit, Mark tore into 'CC Rider' and performed an exhilarating second half to the show – with hits such as 'Suspicious Minds', 'I Cant

Stop Loving You, 'Polk Salad Annie' and 'The Wonder of You'. As the show came to a close with 'Cant Help Falling In Love With You' he left the crowd cheering for more, then disappeared in the awesome 1960 Cadillac he had recently purchased from the States.

Mark Andrew was born in Melbourne and spent most of his childhood in Europe.

It was there his interest in performing arts developed from an early age, acting, singing and playing character roles to large audiences.

He is nicknamed the chameleon amongst his friends, and has earned high respect from the Australian entertainment industry with his natural talent to act and play many characters.

Elvis Leaves His Mark and Dead-Set Legends are his signature Shows

Mark started performing at the ripe 8 years of age. On his return to Australia in 1983, he appeared on New Faces.

In 1992 Mark formed a Rock n Roll band, Blue Suede Dudes, playing many Melbourne venues and also supporting Chubby Checker on his Australian Tour.

In 1995 he featured as Buddy Holly in a Legends Revival Concert at Dallas Brooks Hall. Mark then created his own Dead-Set Legends show performing as Buddy, Lennon, Jim Morrison and Elvis.

Elvis Leaves His Mark was launched in 1998 and is now one of the best Tribute shows worldwide with Mark finishing in the top 5 in the world in Memphis 2002.

Mark later added Austin Powers, Dean Martin & Tom Jones to his Legend Show and also makes a true to life Danny Zuko, performing in many Grease tribute shows. A Must See!

In most recent years, Mark has appeared on GMA and IMT, and has shared the stage with celebrities such Normie Rowe, Frank Holden, Wilbur Wilde, Mental as Anything, The All Stars and more.

Mark has also been honoured to have entertained many celebrities at corporate events with a star line up such as Hugh Jackman and Kate Ceberano.
