

James Lush

James Lush has spent the past 16 years working in the media both as a producer and presenter for TV and Radio programs including the BBC, ITV and ABC here in Australia.

Before leaving for Australia at the beginning of 2004, James was the news presenter for BBC's National Radio 5 Live.

Now in Perth, James presents the Saturday Breakfast Show on 720 ABC Perth and fills in on the Statewide ABC Morning Show when the presenter is away. Over the next few months James will be hosting events for the likes of the Chamber of Commerce,

Institute of Management, The Perth Writers Festival, Institute of Company Directors and the Property Council.

James has worked and trained with some of the largest companies in the world including Vodafone, IBM, Merck, Novartis, Barclays, Marks and Spencer, HSBC, Lucent, Caterpillar, Roche, Logica, British Council, Esporta and Orange. Over the past 3 years, James has provided training and consultancy for Western Australia's new Labour Ministers, Land Corp, McDonalds, Commonwealth Bank, Tourism WA, GESB, Lion Ore, Griffin Mining, Chamber of Commerce, CSIRO, Western Areas, Norilsk, TNG, Fox Resources, Thor Mining, Mission Biofuels, YTC, Atom Energy, Western Power.

His training and presentation work has taken him all over the world through word of mouth recommendations.

For more information on James Lush along with more professional Mc's contact Perth Professional Entertainment Services on 0893821894.

Entertainment Just Gets Better