

Corporate Entertainment	0893821894	www.ppes.com.au

Monica Main

Since graduating from The Victorian College of the Arts in 1986 Monica Main has worked extensively throughout Australia as a Corporate performer, Improviser (State Theatre Sports champion 1992) Writer, MC, Director and Actor. Monica has also appeared in numerous television and radio shows. Since Early 2002 Monica has performed for thousands of school children working for Millennium Kids, a Fremantle based International Youth Environment group. In January 2006 as a Millennium Kids mentor she travelled to South Africa and ran a series of drama based workshops in remote communities. In 2006 the City of South Perth through Millennium Kids commissioned her to write a one woman play, The Swashline; an historical comedy for upper primary performances.

Monica often performs as Madam Lash for events held at the Fremantle Prison. She has a wandering improv duo called Kazza and Shazza and another called Clumsy Airlines.

Recent MC-ed; Kwinana Fair, Joondalup Festival, SRG Corp, The Born to Sing 200 voice Choir at Winthrop Hall. IGA pavilion for the week of the Royal Show.

Monica can mc as herself or in character and is a versatile performer who loves to create characters to suit events.

For further information on Monica Main along with more professional Mc's comedians and performers contact Perth Professional Entertainment Services on 0893821894.

Entertainment Just Gets Better